

HOBSON PARKER IS SHOT AND KILLED IN ALASKA ROAD HOUSE

Young Man Will Known Here Killed In Alaska, Telegram to Father Here States—Went Through War Without Injury.

Mr. H. P. Parker, of St. Louis, who with his wife is visiting relatives and friends in Maysville, Tuesday morning received a telegram from a Captain Parsons, at Fairbanks, Alaska, announcing the sudden death of his son, Hobson K. Parker, well known in Maysville.

The telegram simply states that Hobson K. Parker had been shot and killed at McClusky's Road House near Richardson, Alaska, on the evening of August 14th. Details were lacking.

Hobson K. Parker spent the greater part of his early life at Tolesboro, Lewis county, where he was born but he was very well known in Maysville where he often visited. During the World War, he was one of the first to enlist and except for a harrowing experience he had aboard the Norwegian vessel "Dye One," he escaped without serious injury although he was in several serious battles.

It will be remembered that young Parker visited Maysville shortly after his experience on the Norwegian vessel, which was sunk by German gun fire. Young Parker was one of the three passengers who escaped from the sinking of this vessel. He was a great traveler and from the tone of the message received by his father Tuesday, it appears that he was again a member of the military establishment. Besides his father, young Parker is survived by his mother, who is now a resident of Portsmouth, Ohio, one brother, Russell Parker, of this city, and two sisters, Mrs. Elsie Tolle and Miss Lillian Parker, of Tolesboro. The father is expecting details of the tragic death.

CROP OUTLOOK IN THE STATE NOT SO ENCOURAGING

State and Federal Crop Report As of August 15th Shows Estimates Considerably Decreased.

Considerable decrease in the estimates of practically all crops in Kentucky, compared to July estimates, is the feature of the monthly crop report issued at Louisville and Frankfort by the U. S. Bureau of Markets & Crop Estimates in co-operation with State Commissioner of Agriculture W. C. Hanna. Tobacco shows a reduction from July 1 estimates because of the drouth, and a great reduction from 1920 because of decreased acreage besides the drouth this season. However, there is much of the tobacco in this state that can yet make a normal yield if given favorable weather, so that the estimate of tobacco production might have to be changed considerably, later in the season. The United States total tobacco crop is considerably smaller than last year, being estimated now at 889,000,000 pounds compared to 1,508,000,000 pounds total United States production last year.

Probable corn production in Kentucky is estimated at 77,059,000 bushels compared to a July 1 estimate of 92,791,000 bushels and a crop last year of 100,650,000 bushels; wheat this month is estimated at 6,050,000 bushels, compared to a July 1 estimate of 6,765,000 bushels and a production last year of 5,160,000 bushels; potatoes 3,465,000 bushels compared to prospects July 1 for 4,481,000 bushels and a crop last year of 4,335,000 bushels; oats 6,375,000 bushels compared to prospects July 1 for 6,665,000 bushels, and a crop last year of 8,225,000 bushels; tobacco 251,790,000 pounds compared to a July 1 estimate of 288,288,000 pounds and last year's production of 467,500,000 pounds. This estimate on tobacco may be considerably changed later in the season, depending on favorable or unfavorable weather.

Rye production in Kentucky this season is estimated at 380,000 bushels compared to 480,000 bushels last year; barley 103,000 bushels compared to 112,000 bushels last year; sweet potatoes 1,629,000 bushels compared to 1,890,000 bushels last year; and hay of all kinds 1,051,000 tons compared to 1,508,000 tons last year. Fruit is a poor crop in Kentucky as a whole, apples being estimated at only 1,251,000 bushels, and peaches 153,000 bushels. The western counties report the most fruit, especially apples. The condition of other crops in Kentucky is reported as follows: alfalfa 78 per cent; millet 72 per cent; pasture 65 per cent; cowpeas 80; field beans 70; tomatoes 63; cabbage 60; onions 81; grapes 51; watermelons and muskmelons 68; broom corn 69; sorghum for sirup 75; average yield of clover hay per acre 1.10 tons.

The condition of crops in Mason county is reported as follows: Corn 50 per cent; potatoes 30; tobacco 68; hay 68; pasture 42. The average yield of wheat per acre is given as 7.3 bushels.

NEW TAX MEASURE PUT BEFORE HOUSE

New Measure Presented to Reduce Nation's Tax Burden By at Least $600,000,000.

Washington, August 16. — The Administration tax revision bill, designed to raise approximately $3,000,000,000 a year, was formally presented yesterday to the House of Representatives, Chairman Fordney of the Ways and Means committee expects to call it up Wednesday and to have a final vote Saturday under a special rule limiting consideration to four days.

Republican leaders estimate that the bill will reduce the nation's tax burden by $600,000,000 in the next calendar year through repeal of the excess profit tax, the higher rates of income surtaxes, all of the transportation taxes, including express and oil pipe line, increased exemptions to head of families and married men having small incomes, and decreases in the levies on candy, sporting goods, furs and art and art works.

Details of these and other changes, including the increase of 5 per cent in the income tax on corporations, already have been published.

GAMBLING TO STOP IS NEWPORT ORDER

Safety Commissioner Says His Information Is Conditions Are Worse Than He Has Suspected.

Newport, Ky., August 16. — Chris Ehart, commissioner of public safety of Newport, has ordered Chief of Police Bregel to close all gambling places in Newport and to see that they are kept closed.

Commissioner Ehart said today his anti-gambling order followed information he had received that conditions are far worse than he has suspected.

The hold up of a dice game in a resort by a saloonkeeper of Newport who walked out with between $1,000 and $1,500 has been believed to have precipitated the order to the police.

The attempt to rob L. C. Widrig, drug store proprietor and treasurer of the Cincinnati National League Baseball club, at his drug store several nights ago, is also declared to have had an effect in bringing about the order.

LEWIS COUNTY MAN DIES FROM STABS RECEIVED IN SIDE

Robert Cooper, Farmer of Indian Fork of Kinney, Dies En Route to Portsmouth Hospital Monday Night — Stabbed By Friend.

Robert Cooper, 23 years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kinney, who reside on the Indian Fork of Kinney in Lewis county near Petersville, died Monday night when within four miles of Portsmouth, Ohio, where he was being rushed following an escape in which Cooper was stabbed by a neighbor boy and friend, Gerald Boots, according to Lewis county officers.

Cooper and his cousin, Sherman Stacey, together with several women, were leaving the Indian Church, at about 10 o'clock Monday evening and when only a short distance from the church, they came upon Gerald Boots, who appeared to be under the influence of liquor and is charged with using vile language, bragging that he was the best man in Lewis county. Both Cooper and Stacey went to Boots and tried to get him quieted, according to Stacey's story, and Boots jerked out a large knife. He cut Stacey on the arm and then stabbed Cooper.

The Petersville physician was summoned and it required eight stitches to close the wound in Stacey's arm, but Cooper was found to be most critically wounded, being stabbed very deeply in the left side and one gash running from the navel to the hip. He was taken in an auto to be rushed to the Portsmouth hospital.

Lewis county officers had been unable to locate Boots up to 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon although the county is being scoured. It is supposed he has escaped into the mountains. There was no trouble between the young men, they having been very good friends.

'WHY DOESN'T CONGRESS DO SOMETHING BESIDES TALK?'

A great many citizens of this republic, expecting the new Republican administration to clear away the debris created during eight wrecking years of Democratic rule and rebuild from the foundation up in less than one-sixteenth of the time taken to bring about the wreckage, find it easy to ask this question: "Why doesn't Congress do something besides talk?" It's a question which the Democratic party organization and the Democratic press exploit daily and repeat with clamorous glee, and even some individual Republicans and some representatives of the Republican press are found also to be falling back upon this query as an outlet for expressions of impatience.

But what does a review of the first five months of Republican control of government reveal, in fact? Most assuredly it reveals that considerably more than "talk" has been going on at the seat of government in Washington.

Witness these accomplishments since the Republican administration began on the 4th of last March:

Inauguration of an economy and efficiency program by the enactment of the budget bill and the appointment of Charles G. Dawes as budget director and Walter F. Brown as chairman of the congressional joint committee on reorganization.

Emergency tariff bill passed.

Emergency immigration bill passed.

Sweet bill passed to reorganize the relief agencies for disabled soldiers and dependents.

Reduction of the discount rates of the federal reserve banks to relieve business stagnation.

Refunding of the government's short date debt to improve market for government securities.

Knox-Porter peace resolution passed.

Ratification of the Colombian treaty.

Settlement of the reparations dispute between the entente nations and Germany by American pressure.

Release of American prisoners in Russia agreed upon.

Arrangement made for early retirement of American military forces in San Domingo.

"Open door" policy in China reiterated.

Panama informed that she must accept White award in boundary dispute with Costa Rica, but has not yet yielded.

Disarmament conference called.

And these Republican undertakings that are in a state of progress:

Tariff revision bill passed by the House and pending in Senate.

Tax revision pending before House Ways and Means committee and still to be passed by both houses, with prospect of becoming law in the autumn.

Bills for the relief of the railroads and the farmers introduced in the Senate and House at instigation of the President, and early action promised.

Plans for an international conference on limitation of armaments and Far Eastern problems progressing satisfactorily.

Complete peace with Germany and Austria still hanging fire pending negotiation of separate treaty or possible ratification of Versailles treaty with amendments.

Refunding of foreign loans awaiting authority from Congress.

Disputes with Great Britain and Japan over Mesopotamia and Yap mandates still being negotiated.

It is not plain, from this summary of the facts, that there has been very much less "talk" and very much more "do" in the capital of the nation during the five months just past than had been the case for a considerable span of time previous thereto? The Republican administration, not alone in the legislative branch but in the executive branch, is doing a lot more than talk, and the proof of this is every day so manifest that "Why doesn't Congress do something besides talk?" is an obviously fooling question.

The usefulness of the battleship in modern warfare would, of course, have been more convincingly demonstrated if the bombing planes had put the German warships out of business in the Keil Canal instead of in Hampton Roads.

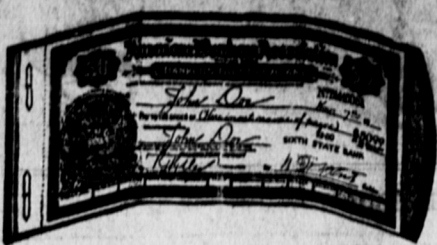

The remarkable thing about Ireland is that the country can attract so much outside attention and not an oil well on the job.

POLICE CHASE RAINBOW
IN NEW SMALL CLEW.

Toronto. — Toronto police are still searching for the body of Ambrose J. Small, the multi-millionaire theatrical king, who has been missing since December 2, 1919. Long since the police gave up hope that he is alive, as the world has been combed in an effort to locate him.

This week Alexander Anderson, of 96 Church street, who is a brother-in-law of John Doughty, former private secretary to Small, and now serving a five year sentence in penitentiary for stealing $100,000 in bonds from his employer's estate, though the bonds were later handed back by Doughty, came to the police and claimed to have received a tip that Small's body was buried in a lonely spot in High Park, a suburb of Toronto.

The detectives have been deluged with fake clews since Small disappeared and they are very chary about acting on any of them, but coming from Doughty's brother-in-law, it was decided to take a chance on the tip. Accordingly a squad of officers motored to the scene and for hours dug up the ground, but no trace of the body was found.

Many of the Japanese shopkeepers serve their prospective customers with cake an idea before exhibiting their goods.

SEE MESSAGE IN

THE WU. S. TARIFF.

London.—British manufacturers are seriously concerned over the prospect of a sweeping increase in the American tariff. Guy Locock, the director in the Federation of British Industries the largest organization of the kind in Great Britain, in an interview, declared that he voiced the opinion of the federation in saying that the world would be unable to discharge its debts to the United States if the tariff were placed too high.

He said: "The United States has efficiently built up an extensive export trade. As a result, the rest of the world must, in some manner or other, pay to the United States the debts owed to that country."

"There is only one way in which this can be done, and that is by payment in kind. Although a tariff is doubtless desirable, in the view of the American public, a very difficult situation will arise if that tariff is placed so high that it will be impossible for the rest of the world to export goods to the United States. If that should occur, I see no way by which the rest of the world can discharge its debts to the United States."

WIFE BETRAYS HUSBAND
INTO HANDS OF SHERIFF.

Henderson, Ky. — Sheriff Ed Onan of Union county, and three deputies captured a sixty-gallon moonshine still near Hottelville and arrested Clark Willett, alleged operator. The sheriff received a tip from Mrs. Willett, who objected to her husband operating the still. Willett was released under $400 bond for his appearance at the examining trial before Judge Tucker at Morgantown Monday.

It is a great saving of coal to store it in a dry place, well protected on all sides from the weather. Coal left out of doors, exposed to the weather for, say, a month, loses about one-third of its heating quality.

SUFFERED SEVEN LONG YEARS

Finally Relieved by taking
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Ravenswood, W. Va. — "For seven long years I suffered from a female trouble and inflammation so that I was not able to do my housework. I consulted several doctors but none seemed to give me relief. I read in a paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound so I decided to try it, and before the first bottle was gone I found great relief so I continued using it until I had taken eight bottles. Now I am very well and can do my own housework. I can gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine to suffering women." — Mrs. BERTHA LIERING, R. F. D., Ravenswood, W. Va.

The ordinary day of most housewives is a ceaseless treadmill of washing, cooking, cleaning, mending, sweeping, dusting and caring for little ones. How much harder the tasks when some derangement of the system causes headaches, backaches, bearing-down pains and nervousness. Every such woman should profit by Mrs. Liering's experience. Remember this, for over forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been restoring health.

New York Letter

by
Lucy Jeanne Price

New York. — We are still safe and sound on our rock-topped island. That may not be surprising to most people, but it is to Edgar Cole, of the unwilling-to-be-surprised city of Philadelphia. Edgar is a weather prophet with a special flair for the more serious phases of the elements; and when he discovered that New York City was to slip into the ocean a few days ago, he immediately notified us. Undoubtedly, being a true Philadelphian, he didn't think any great tragedy would be involved in the slip, but still he was neighborly enough to give us a chance to get onto safe ground. If we hadn't had the humidity and the coming mayoralty campaign to think about at the same time, we would probably have got excited about it and bought rubber boots and arks. But as it was, New York passed gently through the hour set for submersion and all it still well.

In the bequests of the late Michael

Dreier, the Metropolitan Museum has received some real treasures. Rare pieces of twelfth century statuary are in the collection and a number of famous paintings, chief among them being the small painting, "Christ Appearing to Mary," a fifteenth century masterpiece by the Flemish artist, Van der Weyden.

—NY—

Four new productions are announced for the beginning of the Marc Klaw, Inc., activities. "Sonya," adapted from the Polish of Gabriela Zapolska, will be the first, opening this month. "Other Lives," directed by Dudley Digges, of Theater Guild fame; "The Full Cup;" and "We Girls," by the Hattsons, are other plays on the early schedule.

—NY—

It's difficult accounting for temperament. Concetta Olesi, 21 Moore street, pretty nearly wrecked the Jefferson Market court the other day when she was brought there for a hearing. Guarded by the strongest, tallest and most experienced of the court attendants, things went all right until the Court reprimanded her for the diversified and strenuous profanity with which she greeted the order that she be held in $300 bail for the Special Session. Then things were started. Concetta vaulted the court railing, threw two court officers out of her way, tapping an objecting clerk on the nose, and only surrendered when the reserves caught her. Now then; what do you suppose was the crime which had been committed by this Amazonian criminal? She had stolen a powder puff.

The officers of the liner Orduna had a considerable problem to solve the other day before the ship could start on across the Atlantic from New York. Ludwig Schmulten had lost his job of giant-lung at Coney Island because a rival came along who was three inches taller than Ludwig's seven feet four; and he decided to go on home to Hamburg. The steamer beds, unfortunately, are only six feet long; so two of them had to be strapped together and Ludwig has to lie cornerwise all the way to Europe.

Three hundred and fifty boys at a time, aged all the way from 8 to 18, are fortifying near Jamesport, L. I., in what is undoubtedly the liveliest and joyfulest camp along the Eastern coast. They are members of the Boys'

Club of this city, of which Charles H. Sabin is president. More than 2,000 have had their outing so far and 1,000 more will get it in before the camp closes in September.

Aria Flamma, who for a dozen years has had a vogue in Italy as one of the younger dramatists in the making of one-act plays, is to have his first long play produced in New York within the next few weeks, in English, fortunately. It is called "The Mask of Hamlet," and strangely enough, considering Mr. Flamma's symbolic work of the past, it is a drama of the bomb tragedy in our own Wall Street. The dramatist is now making his home in New York.

A new industry has sprung into being at one of the country clubs near New York. The caddy master—probably a canny Scot—is doing a nice little business insuring golf balls. For fifty cents he agrees to replace any balls lost by a player during a trip around the eighteen holes. The fifty cents is paid him at the beginning of the game, of course, and is his whether any balls are lost or not.

Miss Bernice C. Shidelsky has started on a trip across the country with an idea of learning the why, how, and whether of divorce laws and divorces in our various latitudes. Her first stop will be at Chicago and from there she will continue on west. Miss Shidelsky herself has an idea that woman's ability to earn her own living may have something to do with her refusal to stay tied down when she doesn't like the situation.

FARM AND HOME NEWS FROM OVER KENTUCKY.

A large number of Muhlenberg county farmers are planning to use cover crops to protect their fields this fall and winter, according to County Agent F. O. Townes, who reports that a number of them are planning to use rye.

Two Fulton county banks cooperating with the county poultry association and O. L. Cunningham, county agent, have offered a total of $50 in prizes in connection with the poultry exhibit to be made at the county fair. The association at Hickman will compete with the one at Fulton for the award.

Soil building problems are receiving special attention from Livingston county farmers who are cooperating with County Agent L. C. Pace. Frank Cruce is planning to lime 40 acres with 120 tons of crushed limestone and sow sweet clover on it in preparation for alfalfa which he plans to sow later. Farmers of the county have had about 900 tons of limestone ground for use this fall.

Washington county club members who exhibited in the hogs and baby beef classes at the county fair won first over adult exhibitors in all rings which they entered, according to a report of County Agent Robert M. Health. A total of $300 in cash prizes was offered for successful junior club member exhibitors. One boy who won $21 in the pig contest has purchased the foundation animals for a herd of his own.

Ten McCracken county boys and girls, members of the dairy calf club in that county, have obtained their purebred registered Jersey heifers and started developing them as their club project for the year, according to a report of County Agent J. R. Bird.

Members of the Barren county pig club recently held a registered hog sale in which they sold animals weighing from 60 to 125 pounds that were raised as part of their junior agricultural club work. County Agent J. O. Horning reports. The sale resulted in a cash profit for all members who had animals entered.

ORCHARD COVER CROPS
LOOSEST FIELD OF TREES.

Cultivation early in the season followed by the growing of cover crops and mulching with straw from the middle of August to the first of November are the means which Kentucky farmers have for controlling moisture in their orchards and increasing the production of their trees, according to H. R. Niswonger, extension specialist.

In orcharding from the College of Agriculture. Heavy production of trees depends on a good growth which in turn depends upon the amount of moisture available for the growing stock.

To help conserve moisture, rye may be sown in the young orchard from the middle of August to the first of November. The crop should be turned under in the spring. Some farmers sow crimson clover or rye and vetch together for orchard cover crops. In neglected orchards it is a good practice to sow the space between the rows of trees with a cover crop and cover the ground beneath the trees with straw, beginning three or four inches from the trunk and extending beyond the tips of the branches. Good results in conserving moisture are obtained by spreading the straw about three or four inches thick. This material can be applied any time after the crop is harvested but should be under the trees by early spring.

Statistics for the present century show that one thousand and fifty miners' strikes have occurred in Great Britain, as compared with about five hundred of all other trades combined. Next to miners as strikers rank the textile workers—the woolen mill operators and cotton spinners.

The Mystery of the Cook's Pet Parrot

A FUNNY paper recently.

SLIPPED ME a good laugh.

WITH A wheeze about.

A FAMOUS ventriloquist.

AND WHY he had quit.

THE VAUDEVILLE stage.

IT SAID he discovered.

HE COULD make more jack.

SELLING WOODEN parrots.

SO WHEN I got home.

I PASSED the joke.

TO OUR cook, who owns.

BOTH A speechless parrot.

AND A sense of humor.

BUT SHE muffed it.

BECAUSE SHE didn't know.

WHAT A ventriloquist was.

SO I had to explain it.

AND ON the way out.

I BLEW just a whiff.

OF CIGARETTE smoke.

AT HER amusing old.

FOOL of a parrot.

WHICH NEVER talks.

AND I said, "Poll.

HOW D'YOU like it?"

AND TO this day.

IT'S GOT me guessing.

WHETHER IT was cook.

OR THE blamed bird.

WHICH SQUAWKED back.

GOOD ROADS AID BILL REPORTED TO SENATE.

Washington, August 16. — The federal good roads aid bill was reported favorably to the Senate Monday and effort will be made to pass it before recess. It provides for a federal commission of three to disburse the $100,000,000 authorized for annual road improvement and requires that three-sevenths of the roads improved must be interstate, while four-sevenths may be inter-county.

Sixty per cent. or more of federal funds would go into interstate roads. A sliding scale of federal aid is provided for in states having large public lands areas.

FARMERS FIND BODY; SIGNS OF STRUGGLE SEEN.

Paducah, Ky., August 16. — Mystery surrounds the finding of an unidentified man's body in the middle of the road, 200 yards from the Illinois shore of the Ohio River opposite Paducah.

Farmers, on their way to Paducah market, found the body early Monday and hurried to police headquarters. The sheriff of Mass. county, Illinois, was notified.

The man's skull had been crushed and his face beaten, apparently by some heavy instrument. Broken bottles were scattered about and a struggle evidently had taken place.

WORK THAT TELLS

Plenty of It Has Been Done Right Here in Maysville.

To thoroughly know the virtues of a medicine you must investigate its work. Doan's Kidney Pills stand this test, and plenty of proof exists right here in Maysville. People who testified years ago to relief from backache, kidney and urinary disorders, now give confirmed testimony—declare the results have lasted. How can any Maysville sufferer longer doubt the evidence?

Mrs. W. A. Schatzmann, 605 East Second street, Maysville, gave the following statement November 15, 1916: "From the benefit I have derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills I have every reason to recommend them to anyone. Whenever my kidneys have been irregular in action or I have suffered with a weakness or lameness through the small of my back I have used a box or so of Doan's and they have always proven sufficient to cure the complaint quickly."

On November 22, 1920, Mrs. Schatzmann said: "Doan's Kidney Pills certainly do all that is claimed for them. I recommend them again as I did before when I publicly endorsed them in 1916. Doan's have made a lasting cure for me."

Price 60 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Schatzmann had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

NINE GIVEN JAIL SENTENCE IN CITY COURT AT LOUISVILLE

Louisville Criminal Court has Learned That Jail Sentences Alone Will Stop Drunks In Automobiles.

Louisville, Ky., August 16. — Nine men tried Monday in the Police Court were sent to jail, when Judge A. T. Burgevin invoked the state prohibition law which carries a jail sentence for being drunk in a public place. Each of the men had been arrested while in an automobile.

Albert Smith, 38 years old, chauffeur for the Central Taxicab Service, was the first man to be sent to jail. Smith and Albert Bailey were in an automobile which ran through the safety gates at Fourteenth and Walnut streets Sunday afternoon and struck an Illinois Central locomotive. Smith was fined $50 and given a jail sentence of twenty days while his passenger, Bailey, was sentenced for ten days.

V. F. King, Linton, Ind., who drove his car into a telephone pole at Twentieth street and Broadway, Sunday, was fined $20 and sent to jail for twenty days while K. H. Kebler and Max Baker, both of Linton, Ind., were fined $10 and given jail sentences of ten days.

A man slated as E. Ufer, who was charged with operating a motor vehicle while drunk, was fined $15 and when policemen testified they found him driving his automobile while drunk at Johnston and Main streets Sunday afternoon.

Three others in the automobile were fined $10 and sent to jail for ten days. They gave their names as J. H. Mann, G. G. Gunterman and Orjen Johnston.

PAYS DEBT FORTY-ONE YEARS OLD.

Tuesday morning a gentleman walked into the R. M. Harrison & Son feed store and purchased 12 barrels of salt for which he paid. Noticing the name of the firm the purchaser asked the senior Mr. Harrison if he was the same "Bob" Harrison who was in the merchandise business at Helena Station over 40 years ago. Mr. Harrison replied that he was and the purchaser replied that he was certainly glad to find him after all of these years. He then stated that about 41 years ago he purchased a bill of goods from Mr. Harrison and did not have enough money to pay for the bill by two dollars and for this amount Mr. Harrison credited him. He then gave Mr. Harrison the two dollars saying it had often worried him. This is a most unusual happening and Mr. Harrison had forgotten about the debt.

GOODMAN VERDICT SET ASIDE.

Covington, Ky., August 16. — Circuit Judge M. L. Harbeson Monday granted a motion of the defendant setting aside the verdict of $7,500 damages which had been awarded to B. F. Goodman, of Covington, former Blue Grass League baseball player, against the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company on the ground that the award was excessive and that there was an error in instructing the jury.

Goodman sued for $12,000, alleging he was injured permanently when he was employed as a brakeman for the company. He contended his employers had supplied him with a defective lantern, the flame of which was extinguished when he was making a run the night he was injured.
